People always talk about stuff like love at first sight. Thinking dating in school will last forever until one or the other dumps you over a text message with no feeling or regret.

My name is Luke, see I have 3 friends their names are Mark, Colin, and Steven. They all go to the same school and Colin seems to be the babe magnet gets a girl for about 2 days then seems to dump her saying 'I need to see new people' really he told us its like a 1 night stand yet you are only kissing and its for 2 days. Mark is a little....um....confusing; literally heâ€™s kind of mental. He thinks that aliens are going to come down and drink all of his milk. Steven is a wrestler and really I don't care for him to much. Once he was making me mad and I decided to say 'Well at least I don't like wearing tights and then getting on top of men on a cushy mat' please don't say that....it earns you a racking and a black eye.

Anyway I saw this girl yesterday and she was beautiful. Once I saw her it was like Steven punched me again, I really couldn't stand up straight or look at anything the same. She was like an angel, yet she was 'a higher popularity rank' making it difficult to talk to her. But I misjudged myself. I started to talk to her in math class.

"Hey thatâ€™s a nice necklace." I said in a shy way voice.

"Thanks I got it from Cali, thatâ€™s a cool shirt." She replied

I look down and it was kind of like a splat of black ink on my white shirt. It was suppose to be that way but I really forgot I was wearing anything that moment. Not in the sick perverted way you think though. So after class we talked more and more and seemed to get an unusual bond. I of course was happy to finally have a chance at a girl rather then Colin taking them all.

"You know Luke you are pretty cool. Most the boys I talk to are all the same, you are different. I like that." Boy that made my stomach turn, wondering if she was going to pop a question but luckily it wouldnâ€™t be for a while.

2 Weeks Later.....

I and she bonded. My friends were jealous to see me and Megan going out. She was way above my popularity rank but yet it seemed like she didn't care. She was sweet and she cared and liked everything about me. I couldn't believe it my life was never this good. It wasn't ever as good as this; sometimes I would go home and ask why am I getting all of this? I never did anything super good in my life....did I?

She eventually asked me the question I had been fearing from the moment she became mine.

"So...um....are you doing anything this Friday?" She asked it! I was stupid and just kind of stood there with my mouth open but then answered.

"Nope I'm free, why?" I had done it.....

"Well my parents always hear me and you talking to each other over the phone and they want to see you and talk to you and stuff over dinner. What I'm saying is can you come over and sleep at my house? As a date?" That did it. I couldn't say no but wasn't happy to say 'oh ya I can come over and sign my death wish and never see you again.' But I kept that to myself.

"Sure I can come I'll be there."

"Great 8:00pm then?"

"Yup."

Man, I was right. I should have said 'Yes I have plans this weekend; I'm planning to get hit by a car and die. So um....ya...see you never again.' But then I would be like Mark, and I don't want to be anything like him.

So it was 7:30pm the time was coming to meet the other family. She already knew mine, she had been over at my house twice and my parents like her. I just hope it's that way with me and her parents. My mom took me into her car she was ready to take me to Megan's.

"Wow, only 15 and you are already sleeping with a girl." My mom said.

"Mom isn't it your job to prevent me to not sleep with a girl until I'm older?"

"Yes...and no. You are 15 and you need to make choices and if they hurt you then they do. They don't the better."

The moment came, I was at her house. I opened the car door and walked up her drive way and then I saw a man open the door to the house.

"Well hello there, you must be the thriving boy that is keeping my daughter happy. I'm so very happy to meet you. The older man said.

"Yes....ehm...very nice to meet the father of such a beautiful girl."

He made a hand motion for me to come inside and then I saw her walk down the steps. She was beautiful like twice then the last time. Heck you could charge like $50 for people to just look at her and they would pay it. I would at least, if I had the money.

"Hey Luke." She came over and gave me a kiss on the mouth. Then I passed out, no I'm just joking but it felt like I was going to. The thing that wasn't right at that moment was that her father didn't do anything about it. Figuring he was either not very protective or if he liked me a lot or he was on crack it didn't matter if I was able to kiss her tonight like that every time heck I would join him in the process of smoking.

"Well you two seem happy how about a movie and some popcorn? Do you like horror Luke?" The dad asked.

"Oh yes so very much, I love horror." I said.

"I'll pop some popcorn for you and Megan why don't you go get a horror movie?"

"Ok." She took me down like 40 flights of stairs but really it was only one really long one. Here is the movie cabinet. She opened it up; it had a good 40 to 50 movies. She grabbed a horror movie with the title "Lost Boys".

"Ah...vampire movie, very good." I said, she nodded to agree. Then I turned and saw another door. "Hey what's this door to?"

"NO!.....I mean please don't go in there. My dad will hate you if you do, and it seems like he really does like you for now."

"Umm.....ya, sure....sorry." I was tempted to open it still. But you know to get the father to like you, hard goal. "Hey where's your mom?"

"Oh she's out right now. She went out for a bite to eat."

"Without you guys? Humm...you like pizza?"

"Oh no, I am....uh.....the cheese on the pizza makes my stomach all sick and I throw up." She took the movie upstairs and popped it in a really big T.V. turned it on and she sat on the couch and patted the spot next to her.

I walked over and plopped down. We watched half way through the movie I did the old 'Hand around the shoulder' trick bit. She was scared of the movie even though she had seen it before. She was faking to be scared so she could be close to me with out excuses. She then started to move in on me and her mouth was heading for mine and she gave me a bunch of wet kisses then she started her lips down to my neck. Then a huge crashing noise went on.

"What in the world?" I pushed her over a little and looked behind us.

"Oh it's nothing, just our pets I bet"

"No, that was not a pet, do I hear a growl." Then out of no where I saw a pair of yellow eyes.....

I was staring into a big yellow pair of eyes. I was tempted to say something funny to lighten the mood like 'Jesus?' but that would once again lead me back to being Mark.

"Hi Oscar." Megan said. Then a big dog ran out of the dark and jumped on me and started licking me. "Aww....he likes you."

"Ya...hehe....can you get this dog off of me before it licks all my skin off?" She came over and scratched under Oscar's ear and he rolled over and was now right beside me. "That's one big dog. He could eat mine for a snack."

"Well maybe, but he's sweet he would never do anything like that."

"Wait then what was the crashing noise. It sounded like it came from downstairs." I ran down the stairs and didn't even think. Where we were moments ago picking out a movie, the door I wasn't allowed in. I opened it to see the noise.

The room was pitch black I took 5 steps from the door and it closed it seemed by itself but it was one of the doors that just swing back into place. I then felt a wall but no light switch. So I walked a little farther. Move my brain told me but my legs wanted to go back with Megan and tell her it was nothing. But then I would be lying. I then ran my hand across something mushy, it felt like a smooth surface right next to the mushy spot there was a light switch. I flicked it on.

"Oh....my god....what have I gotten myself into....?" There were pictures of Amy Winehouse all over the wall, and maybe a few Britney Spears posters as well. "I think I found hell...her mom or dad is a fan of Britney Spears....really...."

"Luke can you please come back inside." Megan called. I started to walk back towards the door but I tripped on a shovel fell onto it and a brick on the shovel flew across the room and hit the mushy spot and it peeled open. Then as if from a horror movie tons of dead bodies came rushing out of the mushy hole. I gasped and flicked the light off and ran back inside.

I ran up the stairs and shut the door behind me. I was behind the couch and Megan was sitting down watching the movie. I could only see the back of her head.

"Hey uh...Megan I'm really sorry. But I have to leave, I got a phone call and was told my grandpa and goldfish died."

"No Luke you need to stay." A different voice other than Megan's said. Megan turned around and for once I could say that she was not very beautiful. She had fangs and her eyes were red pools of blood.

"No....way.....youâ€™re....a.....vampire?"

"Yes Luke I am indeed a vampire, there were tons hints. Lost Boys being my favorite movie. I canâ€™t eat pizza because of the garlic. I was going for your neck after kissing you. It was clear as day."

"Wait a moment, how come you can go to school....there is light outside?"

"Well if you want to know before I eat you, my mom was a vampire and my dad wasnâ€™t. So when they had me I got to be part vampire and part human. Then after having me my mom bit my dad and he turned into a vampire."

"Ok thatâ€™s it you went over the line. I do not date vampires!!" I picked up a chair and threw it at her and went up another pair of stairs to their main hallway and ran into the bathroom and locked the door. I called Colin.

"Coin I need you at Megan's now!"

"Whatâ€™s up man? She too much for you to handle and you need my help?"

"Ehh....you can say that, ya."

"Alright I'll be over soon."

"Colin, please be careful when you get here, and hurry. I want to be anywhere but here."

I hung up on Colin and sat in the bathroom for a good 10 minutes.

"Jeez for some vampires they really don't put up much of a fiiiiiiiiighttttttt!" I fell through the floor and landed in a darker room with just barley some light from a candle and the floor was dirt. "What the....."

There was a shacking in the ground and a big fat leg came into view in the small part of light from the candle. Another came out of the darkness then a big flower face creature came out, it looked like a Venus Fly Trap. It opened its mouth and three vines came out and wrapped around me and started to pull me towards the mouth.

"Drassilia stop! Heâ€™s mine!" Megan jumped through the floor and grabbed my arms and pulled me the other way. I flung my head upwards and it hit hers and she let go and the plant started dragging me towards the mouth. Then I stuck my foot out and caught one side of its mouth and then ran that way and then the three vines were cut off by the plants own teeth.

Megan got up and ran after me when I pulled of the vines I took them and threw them at her. Then I ran into the darkness and ran into a wall. There was a door I opened it up and then I was down the stairs again where I had found the bodies. I ran up the stairs and a pair of hands grabbed my shoulders and lifted me up.

It was a woman, there was only one person other then Megan it could have been. Her mom.

"Why are you doing this to me!?"

"Why shouldn't I do this to you?" She said back.

"Because of this!" I swung and kicked her in the face with my foot. She dropped me, I scurried and ran to the front door and opened the door and ran out. Colin wasn't there yet. I climbed up the side of the house. Jumping off their table grabbing the gutter then climbing up to the roof. I ran across and ran by 2 windows I saw in one of the windows a pink bed and a TV and stuff you would see in a girl's room. Figuring it was Megan's. Then the next one was all black. Just then a car pulled up in the driveway.

"Thank god it's Colin." Right then the ground shook and the Venus Fly Trap creature came up through the drive way and ate the car and then went back down under the ground. "No...NO!!!! Alright you people have had your fun. As long as I live I will make sure you all die one by one." After I said that I had a twist in my stomach, I felt bad for saying that I had to kill Megan.

"Alright its time to fight."

I turned around and noticed something. The window that was black was covered with a black tarp. That was the ticket! Vampires can't stand light. The only problem, where am I suppose to get sun light at 11:00pm at night?

I heard a noise someone was climbing up the side of the house, it was Megan.

"Stop running Luke. You know you want me, why fight it?"

"NO!" My heart was bumping the last of my energy into my legs and I sprinted to the other side of the roof and looked down. It was a long fall. If I fell and broke my legs I would be done for, they would catch me. I jumped and turned in mid air and caught a hold of the gutter and then hung for a second then dropped. I landed fine just a little pain shot up my legs.

"Stop running Luke." Megan jumped down and landed perfect.

"Awww...come on now that's cheap." I turned and ran across the street. Really I had no clue where I was going. I banged at the neighbor's house across the street.

"Let me in, help! Help me! Someone help me!" The door opened up and Megan was 3 steps behind me then she sprang forward but I ducked and weaved to the side. The man that answered the door was tackled down by Megan. I heard a gruesome sound of slurping.

"Well Luke if I can't make you a vampire I will suck the kids upstairs dry. Will that change your mind?" With that she darted upstairs.

"No...." I ran inside and saw her foot prints of mud up the stairs then I started climbing the stairs and the mother started rolling down the stairs. She was dead, sucked dry by Megan. I jumped over her and ran up and a door was opened I ran to it.

I was in the doorway and Megan was holding a child between the ages of 6 to 7 with both her hands.

"I use to babysit these two little rascals. Now I guess Luke itâ€™s your fault they are dyeing. Have anything to say to them Luke?" She faced the boy towards me. I said nothing though and she lifted him up and was about to bite the boy's neck.

"Wait, take me instead."

"What was that Luke? Take you instead? Humm....alright then." Megan walked over dropping the kid and he crawled to the corner. She grabbed the back of my head and started to close in on my neck. 'Good bye humanity' I said in my head. 'Wait thatâ€™s it!' I thought to myself. There was a baseball bat below my feet. I swung my leg around and tripped Megan, she fell. I grabbed the bat and called the kids.

Megan jumped up and grabbed one and bit him and drank the blood out of him. The sad thing was it was the one that looked like he was 3. I hated seeing the blood drip down the boy's neck and drip on to the floor. I griped tighter on the bat and swung at Megan's head. The bat was grabbed by someone behind me.

"Now, Luke why would you want to do that?" It was Colin. But.....he had the face of a vampire. "Now letâ€™s not hurt Megan." He grabbed me and threw me and the wall and I hit it and fell to the ground. He grabbed the other small kid. "Sweet, free meal." He sunk his teeth into the kid and sucked all the blood out of him then dropped him.

"You son of a b....." I started to say.

"Whatâ€™s that Luke got something to say to me?" He came over and grabbed me and threw me out the window. I landed on my arm on the driveway. Megan and Colin jumped out the window and landed on the ground and walked over to me.

"Luke, Luke. You don't get it do you? I and Megan set you up from the beginning. Sheâ€™s my girlfriend. The first time we saw you we made a plot to take you out. Then Megan completely set up this house. She taught het plant fiend to 'eat' me and then I break out and come around and kill you." He smiled.

"I donâ€™t believe it. The whole thing was a set up." I got to my legs but couldnâ€™t stand for long. I fell down heard a few words before I passed out.

"We won't eat him now will we? We should save him for later when he's awake so he can suffer."

Then my eyes closed.

I opened my eyes to light. Not sun light it was a light from inside Megan's house. I was wrapped up to a wall. I couldn't move anything other than my hands and they were behind my back.

"Look I said we eat him tonight and get it over with." Colin said.

"No we do it when he wakes up."

"Well that would be right now." I said. I had an idea and hoped it would work.

"Hey Colin you know before I die I would like to tell you that your hair has always looked like my shaggy dog and wondered if anything lives up there. That and I have seen pigs with better faces. Oh and Michael Jackson wears his make up better than you do." I yelled at him.

"Oh you did it now you little pest." He took a vase that was next to a lamp and threw it at my head I bent forward so it smashed and scattered and one piece fell down my back and into my hand. I started to slit the stuff that was on me and got one hand free.

"One question, Colin who bit you?" I asked.

"Well since you will be dead Megan's mom bit me."

"Ah....I see." I cut the material open and fell to the ground and ran upstairs.

"NO! Stop him!" I jumped up the stairs and broke a cabinet and took the piece of wood and made sure it was pointy, it was. I figured if I stabbed Megan's mom in the heart she would die and everyone she bit would turn back to normal. I broke into the parents' room and the dad sat up. I figured he would eventually become a pest. I ran over and lunged at him and stabbed him in the heart. He gave a sigh and turned to dust.

Wait, if I killed Megan's mom then Megan would still be a vampire since she was born a vampire. Colin would lose his powers though. One problem is that I couldn't find Megan's mom. As soon as that thought flew through my mind Colin busted in and charged at me. I rolled to the side; he missed me and slammed into the wall. I pushed Megan into the wall and ran back downstairs and then down to the basement.

She was there. She was standing in the middle of the room when she turned to see me she had the vampire look on her face.

"Well your the source of this whole thing arnt you?" I asked.

"Yes, please do you mind to join the family?"

"And have to deal with you? No thanks, I'll pass the offer." I shut the door and remembered something. I ran upstairs and back into the bathroom I was in before. Colin appeared at the door way.

"No where else to run Luke." He prepared to jump and tackle me.

"Try me." With that he jumped and I jumped down the hole I was pulled down by the Venus Fly Trap. Colin missed me and slammed into the curtain of the bathtub and fell into the tube which was full of garlic water.

"Oh, before I forget Colin. The tube is dangerous." I could hear Colin screaming for help. It was not over yet though. I had 2 more vampires to deal with.

I was tiered of having to put up with this vampire stuff. I got to the living room, everything seemed.....quite. The lights just then flashed off.

"Oh, your going to cheat now are you?" I said. I didn't know who it was. Megan or her mother. I was standing in one spot; I was to scared to move anywhere else. I heard foot steps coming towards me. I jumped out of the way. A second later I saw light sparks shoot everywhere. It was Megan's mom, she was being electrocuted by the TV she jumped into.

I just stood there. I felt an icy grip around my neck; I was lifted off the floor.

"You thought a tub full of garlic would stop me? You can think again. I'm not even going to make you a vampire anymore. I'm going to crack your rib bones open and eat your insides." It was Colin. His face half melted away.

"Dude you realize you look like Frankenstein right?" Right after the words came out of my mouth Megan's mom shot out of the TV and hit us both. We tumbled and I got to my feet, Colin grabbed my leg.

"You are not getting away again." Colin yelled. I turned and kicked his half burnt face. He screeched and grabbed his face. I ran up the stairs when Megan grabbed me.

"No more running this time you will be a vampire." She bit me too quick and started drinking blood. I tried pushing her away but she wouldn't stop. I fell to my knees and felt dizzy. I then felt a drop, I looked up and water was dropping from the ceiling. Megan felt one drop on her nose and let go of me and took off. Water came crashing from the ceiling above. It was the garlic water.

Colin had got to his feet ran over and slipped and fell face first into the garlic.

"Why the (His words are replaced with gurgling) does this (gurgling again) happen to me!?!?" He yelled. I grabbed a hand full of water and threw it at Megan's mom; she fell down and grabbed her face. I crawled up the steps and went into the room where Megan's dad was dead. I grabbed a piece of wood and made sure it had a sharp point.

I walked back downstairs and saw Colin gone. I saw water drops going down the stairs to the basement. This was it; I was going to get rid of the vampires in this house for good.

The adrenaline that had been pumping through my veins since the whole mess started had all of a sudden start to burn, falling to my feet in agonizing pain I felt warm tears fall from my eyes.

"Why? I had a chance with a girl, she was great." Was, was, the word that was haunting me, she WAS a great girlfriend until she decided to bite me, and she WAS never really my girlfriend. She belonged to Colin, and he WAS a great friend until all of this happened.

I felt anger now, the pain was gone, and I felt stronger though. I felt like I could pick up a fridge and throw it through a window. With that thought I pulled the wooden stake from my back pocket and walked down the stairs, slowly, painfully. I was going to rid this house of its evils.

I got to the basement door, slowly and cautiously I opened it, taking awareness of the surroundings. I opened the door all the way, there was nothing but darkness, until a dark evil scared face had been illuminated out of the darkness, hands out and reaching for me, she grabbed me and then pulled me into the darkness, and it was Megan's mom that had grabbed me. She flung me across the room and I hit the hard concrete floor. A sliver of pain slid up my back and I yelped after contact.

I slowly got to my feet when all of a sudden I was kneed in the face; I flung backwards and landed on my back once again.

"Pitiful Luke, you can't fight us, we are so much more powerful and faster." Colin said as he rushed over and grabbed my collar of my shirt, he lifted me up slightly. "You pitiful worm." He threw me across the room; I made contact with the floor once again, seemed like I was getting to know it too much, and then slid into the stairs leading up. I wasn't going to go up them though.

The adrenaline thing that made me feel stronger had kicked in and I pushed myself off the ground and to my feet.

"I'm going to make you eat those words." I said running at Colin, he charged at me and swung his fist at me, I weaved to the left, in shock of my movement he left his mouth gapped with surprise, I took the opportunity. I stabbed the wooden stake I was holding through his mouth. Blood shot everywhere, I held the wooden in place, feeling the pressure, and then release as it shot out the back of his neck. I made him eat the words....literally.

He fell to the ground, turns out that you really don't need to stab them in the heart to kill them; you just need to kill them in brutal fashions. Megan and her mother were looking at me in awe, as if I was some god to overcome the power of a vampire.

The gasping didn't last long, the mom charged at me, I dodged and uppercut her face, when I hit her jaw I felt it break out of place. I did some major damage with the punch. She gripped her jaw as she fell to her knees; blood was seeping through her hands and onto the floor.

"You aren't so mighty and powerful now are you?" I asked her as I stood up straight again from the action that had just taken place.

"How are you doing this?" Megan asked. "Why are you hurting them?"

"ARE YOU SERIOUSLY ASKING ME WHY I'M HURTING THEM?" I screamed. "If you had any human left in you, you would know that people fight hard to keep their lives, and while all the three of you tried to possess mine I fought back, killing Colin and breaking your mother's jaw. You know what I'm doing? I'm returning the pain that all of you have caused me. I'm not even sure why you and Colin selected me to destroy, and frankly right now I don't care, but so that other people can't be harmed by your sick plan I'm going to kill all of you."

With that last comment the mother jumped up.

"So you want to test me again, huh?" I asked. She ran towards me, I shifted to the left again and grabbed her neck, twisting it all the way around, feeling the gruesome snapping and crackles of the neck breaking. As the mom fell to the ground and I saw Megan run after her mom, I realized that I had become a monster. I killed people, a tear burned in my eye, swiping it away I had another thought come into my mind. 'It wasn't really your fault; many others had been killed by the family, remembering the mushy wall and the dead bodies inside.' I had made the family suffer the consequences for murder. Then a flash back of Megan and Colin killing the two small kids.

"Mother! No....no.....mom!" After the comment that Megan made she fell on her stomach and started to squirm and make funny noises. She rolled around to her back and than back onto her stomach she then stopped. She froze there on the ground for what seemed like forever to me.

After a long wait Megan got back up onto her legs, I prepared myself to fight, she turned around and had a look on her face that I hadn't seen yet, she looked worried.

"Where am I? Is that you Luke?" Megan asked. She had become normal again, I lowered my guard and thought she forgot everything, she did, but how did she know his name?

"How do you know my name?" I asked her.

"I don't know, it was the first name that popped into my head once I saw you." She said as she neared him.

To me, it seemed like everything was starting to go back to normal, Megan wouldn't remember any of this and I could still be her boyfriend if I explained some things to her. The world seemed to get brighter.

I turned to Megan who was walking slowly over to me, she started to form words.

"Who are these dead people on the floor?" She asked me.

"They tried to hurt you and me Megan." I simply replied back, there wasn't any reason to tell her the truth about what had happened. I started to walk up the stairs when I felt a bite in my neck; I swung around violently and hit Megan back to the floor. "You never changed back did you?" I asked her.

"I was born a vampire, even if you kill who had spawned me I would still be here, unless you ever had the will to kill me." The words ripped through me, she was playing it all as an act.

"I'm going to make sure you don't ever harm another living being on this planet." I ran up the stairs, getting to the upstairs floor I searched around, my eyes came upon the clock. 6:50am, at 7 there should surely be some sunlight; can I hold her off till then? I didn't want to be the cause of her death, but if I knock her out of a window into the light than itâ€™s the sun's fault. The time I had to think was cut short from Megan taking care to me, sprinting up the stairs once again and into the parentâ€™s room, when it hit me. 'Sheâ€™s a half-breed! I can't kill her will sunlight.'

Megan busted through the doorway and jumped, I ducked and she slammed into the wall. Looking around without taking a second glance I spot another piece of sharp wood, snatching it up quickly and running out the door.

I returned to the main floor and waited for Megan, a short time later she was in front of me.

"This is where it ends." I told her with no fear in my voice.

"We will see about that." She returned.

I ran towards her, she leaped over me, trying to turn around fast enough but she kicked me in the back of the head and I stumbled forward. I then turned around quickly, swinging the spike at her, she was dodging it each stab, she grabbed me and threw me across the room, and I slammed into the main door. She then charged at me, I had a plan now, she would be gone. She neared me and I quickly rolled to the side, she slammed into the door as she turned around I shoved the stake through her heart.

"You did it. You actually killed a house full of vampires." She said with her last breathes of air.

"Ya I know, I survived." I said back as she melted into dust. "I won."

Walking out the front door leaving the house behind, I noticed there was a bright world outside the warmth from the morning sun seemed to welcome me, as I walked home. My day carried on like a normal day, when I got home I told my parents that me and Megan had a big fight a broke up. They understood.

Although the night seemed to bug me, I was laying in bed when a sharp pain arose in me neck, I rolled side to side trying to rid of it but the pain kept stinging. I sat up in bed and saw that I didn't have a reflection in the mirror, I checked my mouth and I felt teeth with sharp points.

"I don't understand, I killed them, each and every one of them, Megan bit me but sheâ€™s dead!" I yelled.

I then fell passed out back onto my bed.
