All pictures tell stories
Some grand
Some small and personal
But couples pictures
People you know are in love as soon as you see the picture
And it reminds you of your greatest memories
Of that feeling of warmth
That makes you want to cry with joy
Knowing you've found your person
And that's all you will ever need Ever.

All those thoughts
Run through your head
When you see that kind of picture.
And although all pictures tell stories
These pictures are so effective
Because we don't know the story
And we fill all the gaps.

When I see couples pictures pictures that tell stories,
I feel all those things
But differently
Because unlike most people
My greatest memories are being written,
My person has been found,
I've found it all in you.
