

What price love?

By windrose

© Copyright windrose. All rights reserved.

Â

What price love?

“I would give my life for you”

Do you really mean it?

If it meant dying, yes

But what if it means living?

What if it means that

Every thought and every action

Puts someone else first?

Are you still willing?

What price love?

Do you ever stop to assess

Underneath the giddiness

Just what you’re giving up

To drink from love’s sweet cup?

What price love?

Would you give up your name

If that day came

When your only goal

Was to join your soul?

Would you pay that price?

Would you even think twice?

If you knew that even you

Would one day come to view

The “we” as more important than the you

StoryImp Advertisement

